

A Performance

Our showstopper event for 2022 took place in an area of woodland with large mature oak trees. We hired in a professional company called Whispering Woods who carried out various pre-event safety and logistic checks and delivered an amazing performance in which Nina performed aerial gymnastics hanging by sashes from an old oak tree, while Michael told a woodland type story with musical accompaniment. The effect was magic.

